

Margins: top and bottom: 3 cm; left and right: 2.5 cm.

TITLE IN ENGLISH - 18 PT TIMES NEW ROMAN FONT, BOLD, UPPERCASE

One single free space line (12 pt)

Name Surname¹, Name Surname^{2*}, Name Surname¹

Corresponding author must be marked by asterisk (*). Use 14 pt Times New Roman font.

One single free space line (12 pt)

¹ Affiliation using 10 point Times New Roman font – list all affiliations in English (each in separate line)

² Affiliation – set paragraph space 6 pt before and after, *correspondence: e-mail

Two single free space lines (12 pt)

Abstract – 14 pt Times New Roman font, bold (max. 300 words)

Text should be justified with single spacing (12 pt Times New Roman font). Abstract should be informative. It should give the context or background for the research and should state the goals, basic procedures, main results and principal conclusions. It should emphasize new and important aspects of the research or observations. Abstract should not have any special headings (Goals, Results...). Abstract should be written as a continuous text that consists of one paragraph only. Do not put references in abstract. Also, non-standard or uncommon abbreviations should be avoided, but if essential, they must be defined at their first mention in the abstract itself.

One single free space line (12 pt)

Keywords, 12 pt Times New Roman, bold, Italic keyword 1, keyword 2, keyword 3
List up to 6 keywords in alphabetical order and separate them with comma (.). Do not use any special symbols or abbreviations as keywords.

One single free space line (12 pt)

Introduction – 14 pt Times New Roman, bold

Regardless to page orientation, the margin on left and right should be 2.5 cm and on top and bottom should be 3 cm. Do not put page numbers.

The general outline of the paper consists of: Introduction, Materials and methods, Results, Discussion (or Results and discussion), Conclusions, Acknowledgements, References. If not needed, acknowledgements may be omitted. This scheme may not be suitable for every publication (economics). Authors should adjust their chapters according to their topic but follow the general outline as much as possible. Use 6 pt paragraph spacing between the title/subtitle of the respective section and the text.

One single free space (12 pt)

Materials and methods – 14 pt Times New Roman, bold

Material and methods used as well as the statistical evaluation should be described

One single free space (12 pt)

Margins: top and bottom: 3 cm; left and right: 2.5 cm.

Subheading – 12 pt Times New Roman, bold

Use one single free space line before subheading and no free space between subheading and text that follows.

One single free space (12 pt)

Results – 14 pt Times New Roman, bold

All tables and figures should be placed in the text, where most suitable. Figures and tables, including their captions, must be easily readable and self-explanatory. Be sure that each table/figure is cited in the text. Use 12 pt space between the text and the caption of the table/figure and 6 pt between the caption and the table/figure.

One single free space (12 pt)

Table 1. Table caption – 12 pt Times New Roman

Item	Value ^a	Value
Item 1	100	0.1
Item 2	300	0.2
Item 3	500	0.3

^a Place table footnotes below the table and mark them with superscript lowercase letters. Use 10 pt Times New Roman for footnotes, with 6 pt paragraph space before and after.

One single free space (12 pt)

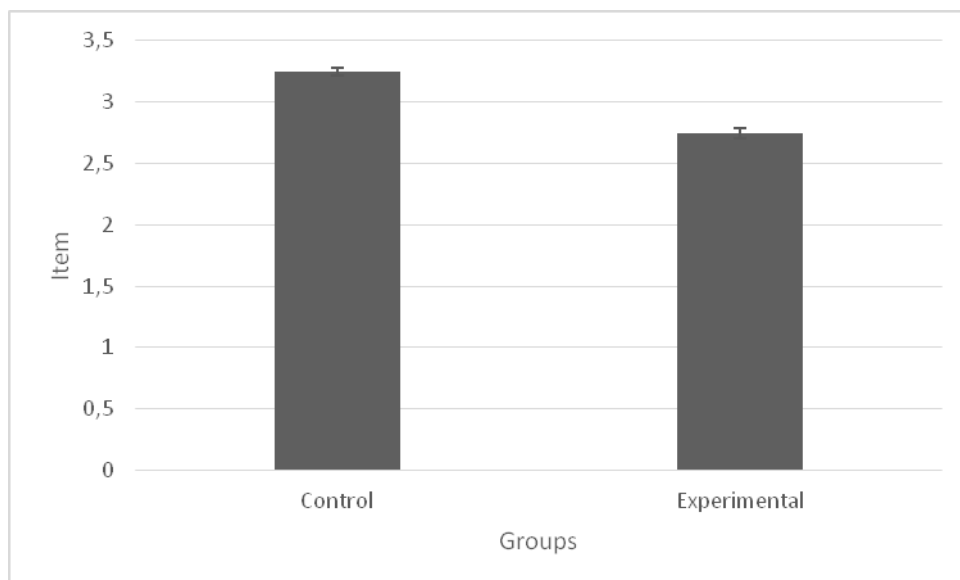

Figure 1. Figure caption in English – 12 pt Times New Roman

One single free space (12 pt)

Margins: top and bottom: 3 cm; left and right: 2.5 cm.

Discussion – 14 pt Times New Roman, bold

Might be combined with the Results in Results and Discussion. Citation in text should be written as: if single author: Horvat (2003) or indirectly (Horvat, 2003). If two authors: Horvat and Szabo (2010) or indirectly (Horvat and Szabo, 2010). If multiple authors: Horvat et al. (2005) or indirectly (Horvat et al., 2005). References should be arranged first alphabetically and then further sorted chronologically if necessary.

One single free space (12 pt)

Conclusions – 14 pt Times New Roman, bold

Conclusions should not contain references.

One single free space (12 pt)

Acknowledgements – 14 pt Times New Roman, bold

If not needed, acknowledgements may be omitted.

One single free space (12 pt)

References – 14 pt Times New Roman

References should be arranged first alphabetically and then further sorted chronologically if necessary. References in the text should be written in 12 pt Times New Roman, and a space of 6pt. Please ensure that every reference cited in the text is also present in the reference list (and vice versa).

Examples: Journals:

Webb, E., H. O'Neill (2008): The animal fat paradox and meat quality. Meat Science, 80: 28-36.

Zhelyazkov, G., T. Popova, Y. Staykov (2015): Effect of sunflower and linseed oil supplementation in the diet on the chemical and fatty acid composition of rainbow trout (Oncorhynchus mykiss W.), cultivated in recirculating system, Bulgarian Journal of Agricultural Science, Suppl. 1, 21: 161–168.

MSc/PhD Thesis:

Caetano, A.R. (1999): Comparative mapping of the horse (Equus caballus) genome by synteny assignment of type-I genes with a horse-mouse somatic cell hybrid panel. Ph.D. Dissertation, University of California, Davis.

Books:

Bendall, J. R. (1973): Post-mortem changes in muscle. In: Bourne, G.H. editor. The structure and function of muscle, Academic Press, N.Y.: 243-309.

Conferences:

Margins: top and bottom: 3 cm; left and right: 2.5 cm.

Popova, T., M. Ignatova, E. Petkov (2015): Lipid composition of meat in male layer-type chickens at different age. In: Proceedngs of the 4th International congress “New Perspectives and Challenges in Livestock Production”, Belgrade, 7-9 October, 2015: 168-175.